FBI REVIEWED 09-Nov-2010: SANITIZED FOR RELEASE IN PART

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I appreciate very much your letter of July 21, 1971, concerning personnel of the [REDACTED] [25x1] whose intelligence-related plans and activities are of defense and security interest to the United States.

The Bureau's timely coverage of these matters is a most important contribution, and I would like to receive your further reports of significant developments as they occur.

Warm regards,

Henry A. Kissinger

Honorable J. Edgar Hoover
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.
